

BUCCANEER RANGE REGULATOR GAZETTE

November, 1897

Headline: Indian Trouble at Cafe

A middle-aged Indian walks into the Regulatorville cafe with a shotgun in one hand pulling a male buffalo with the other. He says to the waiter, "Want coffee."

The waiter says, "Sure, Chief, coming right up." He gets the Indian a tall mug of coffee. The Indian drinks the coffee down in one gulp, turns and blasts the buffalo with the shotgun, causing parts of the animal to splatter everywhere, then calmly walks out.

The next morning the same Indian returns. He has his shotgun in one hand, pulling another male buffalo with the other. He walks up to the counter and says again to the now very leery waiter, "Want coffee."

The guy behind the counter says, "Whoa, Tonto! We're still cleaning up your mess from yesterday. What was all that about, anyway?"

The Indian smiles and proudly says, "Training for upper management position in United States Congress: Come in, drink coffee, shoot the bull, leave big mess for others to clean up, disappear for rest of day."
